

Workforce and Employee Development

Training Catalog

January - June 2024

ENROLLMENT PROCESS

1. Employees may register for live webinars by self-enrollment in TalentWorks (formerly Learning Link) or through a Departmental registrar.
2. Managers must approve webinar enrollments in TalentWorks. (Managers will receive an approval request email from TalentWorks with a link to the approval page.)

Note: Webinars are provided on a fee-for-service basis. Fees are based on rates approved by the Auditor-Controller and are subject to change based on DHR's adopted budget.

Please note:

An employee's confirmation of attendance, with or without a manager's preapproval, shall authorize DHR to charge the Department for the employee's participation in the webinar.

CANCELLATION PROCESS

1. The deadline for cancellation is 3 days before the webinar. (After the deadline, please contact DHR-WED.)
3. If an employee is unable to attend, a replacement employee is permitted by contacting DHR-WED with the replacement employee's name and employee number.
4. If the originally enrolled employee does not attend and a replacement is not sent, the Department will be charged the full fee for the enrollment.

DEPARTMENT-DEDICATED CLASSES

Departments may request dedicated classes for any of DHR-WED's webinars. To schedule a dedicated class, please contact Lisa DeShield or Shirley Jefferson (see contact information below). Please note that department-dedicated classes require a minimum enrollment of 10 employees.

TALENTWORKS PROFILES

Please ensure employee profile information in the Manager Profile System (MPS) is correct. TalentWorks (formerly Learning Link) profiles are based on MPS data, and incorrect information (e.g., email address, manager) will delay the enrollment process and may prevent employees from receiving important emails. For assistance updating employee profiles, please contact your Departmental Training Coordinator.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Persons with disabilities needing auxiliary aids or services in order to participate must contact their Departmental Training Coordinator and notify DHR-WED at DHR-WEDTraining@hr.lacounty.gov no later than 7 days before the workshop.

County Policy of Equity for Employees

Target Audience: All non-supervisory employees (mandatory)

Duration: 30 minutes

Description: This online course is designed to help employees understand their rights to be free from discrimination, unlawful harassment, retaliation, and other inappropriate conduct. The course covers key components of the County Policy of Equity, including employees' rights and responsibilities, conduct prohibited by the policy, and the process for reporting violations.

County Policy of Equity for Supervisors

Target Audience: All managers and supervisors (mandatory)

Duration: 35 minutes

Description: This online course is designed to help managers and supervisors understand employees' rights to be free from discrimination, unlawful harassment, retaliation, and other inappropriate conduct. The course covers key components of the County Policy of Equity, including employees' rights and responsibilities, conduct prohibited by the policy, manager/supervisor responsibilities, and the process for reporting violations.

County Teleworker Training

Target Audience: All County Teleworkers (mandatory)

Duration: 30 minutes

Description: The course is required for all County employees who wish to participate in the County's telework program and must be completed before starting a telework arrangement. Course topics include an overview of telework at the County, procedures for becoming a teleworker, and responsibilities as a teleworker.

County Telemanager Training

Target Audience: All supervisors of County Teleworkers (mandatory)

Duration: 30 minutes

Description: This course is required for all County employees who will be supervising teleworkers and must be completed before the start of a telework arrangement. Topics include an overview of telework at the County, assessment of a telework assignment, responsibilities as a Telemanager, and the administration of a teleworking arrangement.

Disaster Service Worker Awareness

Target Audience: All County employees (mandatory)

Duration: 30 minutes

Description: The California Emergency Services Act designates public employees as Disaster Service Workers that may be deployed to perform activities outside the scope of their regular employment to promote the protection of lives and property, and mitigate the effects of a disaster. The purpose of this training is to introduce County employees to their roles, responsibilities, and legal obligations to serve as Disaster Service Workers.

DHR Workforce and Employee Development offerings can also be found online at:
<http://employee.hr.lacounty.gov/development-2/>

Domestic Violence Awareness

Target Audience: All County Employees

Duration: 70 minutes

Description: This training presents interviews with subject matter experts from multiple agencies across the County to help employees understand the various forms of domestic violence, who is impacted, how it can affect the workplace, how to support a potential survivor, and how to get help through a wide range of local services and resources.

This training is also designed to assist managers and supervisors with their responsibilities under PPG 622, Los Angeles County Employee Domestic Violence Assistance Program, which include providing a supportive environment, advising employees of available resources, and reporting potential safety threats to the workplace.

Drug Free Workplace: Reasonable Suspicion Training

Target Audience: All managers and supervisors (mandatory)

Duration: 60 minutes

Description: The purpose of this training is to introduce County supervisors and managers to the procedures they must follow when they suspect that an employee needs to undergo a drug and alcohol test. The policy of the County of Los Angeles is that use/abuse of drugs and alcohol by employees or contract personnel is unacceptable since it adversely affects health, safety, security, and productivity as well as public confidence and trust. It is unlawful, dangerous and forbidden in the workplace to use, possess, sell, or be under the influence of illegal drugs. Employees are also not allowed to use and misuse alcohol or prescribed drugs, to any extent that hinders safe and effective job performance. The Drug Free Workplace Policy: Reasonable Suspicion is a Board-approved program established to enforce this policy.

FLSA Essentials for Supervisors

Target Audience: All managers and supervisors (mandatory)

Duration: 45 minutes

Description: This course provides the essential concepts, definitions, and requirements that County managers and supervisors need to know to ensure compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Topics covered include key definitions and concepts, which County employees are covered under FLSA, what is considered work time, which specific types of activities are compensable, what managers and supervisors must do to ensure FLSA compliance, and the authorities, policies, and resources that should be consulted for questions about FLSA compliance at the County.

This course also provides FLSA guidance on a wide range of County work scenarios and commonly-asked questions about time keeping, authorizing work, travel, training, and remote work. Learners will also complete applied scenarios to demonstrate their knowledge and ability to apply FLSA requirements in various contexts.

Implicit Bias and Cultural Competency: An Introduction

Target Audience: All County employees (mandatory)

Duration: 75 minutes

Description: This course introduces the fundamental concepts of implicit bias and cultural competency. It also provides practical techniques that each learner can use to develop an individualized development plan to mitigate implicit biases and improve their cultural competence.

The course is presented in two modules. Module 1 includes an introduction to both subjects, an overview of relevant terms, and a segment on implicit bias. Module 2 covers cultural competency, the County Policy of Equity, and introduces resources and an Individualized Development Plan to help learners mitigate implicit biases and improve cultural competence. The course content is delivered by two narrators and learning is reinforced through the use of videos and multiple-choice quizzes. To enhance applicability, workplace scenarios are interwoven throughout the course.

Sexual Harassment & Discrimination Prevention Training for Line Staff

Target Audience: All non-supervisory employees (mandatory)

Duration: 1 Hour

Description: This course emphasizes the County of Los Angeles' commitment to creating and maintaining a workplace free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation. This course covers federal and state anti-harassment and nondiscrimination laws and a review and acknowledgment of the County's Policy of Equity. The course is designed to provide knowledge and tools to equip the learner with recognizing and avoiding illegal behavior, understanding gender and sexual orientation at work, recognizing abusive conduct and its negative effects, identifying how to be an active bystander, and outlining how to best respond to harassing and/or hostile behavior and other forms of misconduct. This course uses terminology, quizzes, case studies, and additional resources to engage and reinforce the learners understanding of these important concepts. This course is compliant with California's most recent legal training requirements under Government code 12950.1 (Amended by Stats.2020, Ch.227, Sec. 1.).

Sexual Harassment & Discrimination Prevention Training for Managers and Supervisors

Target Audience: All managers and supervisors (mandatory)

Duration: 2 Hours

Description: This course emphasizes the County of Los Angeles' commitment to creating and maintaining a workplace free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation. This course covers federal and state anti-harassment and nondiscrimination laws and a review/acknowledgment of the County's Policy of Equity. The course is designed to provide knowledge and tools to equip managers with recognizing and avoiding illegal behavior, understanding gender and sexual orientation at work, and recognizing abusive conduct and its negative effects. The course also dives into manager responsibilities, including how to effectively report incidents of misconduct, avoiding retaliation, and how micro-aggressions can occur in the workplace. This course is compliant with California's most recent legal training requirements under Government code 12950.1 (Amended by Stats.2020, Ch.227, Sec. 1.) Managers will also receive Employment Discrimination Prevention Training (EDPT) credit after completing this course.

DHR Workforce and Employee Development offerings can also be found online at:

Transgender Awareness: Working with Constituents & Colleagues

Target Audience: All County employees

Duration: 1 Hour

Description: This course builds awareness of transgender rights and best practices through a review of key concepts and terminology, challenges facing the LGBTQ+ community, and how employees can help move the conversation forward to build a more accepting work environment. This training is available to managers, supervisors, and line staff who are committed to creating an equitable and inclusive workplace for both employees and constituents.

Workplace Violence Prevention

Target Audience: All County employees (mandatory)

Duration: 90 minutes

Description: This course provides training on the essential concepts, strategies, and County procedures for the prevention of workplace violence, as well as response and recovery after an incident occurs. Topics covered include key definitions and concepts, types of workplace violence, risk factors, warning signs and stages of violence, prevention strategies, intervention and reporting, response and recovery, and supporting resources.

Workplace Violence Prevention Leadership Training

Target Audience: All managers and supervisors (mandatory)

Duration: 75 minutes

Description: The Workplace Violence Prevention (WVP) Leadership Training presents 5 real-world scenarios with panel discussions featuring County subject matter experts. Through these scenarios and panel discussions, supervisors and managers will learn to recognize common antecedents to incidents of workplace violence, specific preventative actions they should take, and intervention strategies for addressing concerning behaviors before they escalate. Links to essential workplace violence prevention resources are also provided.
